

Personal Care Assistant wanted for a woman with a brain injury in Rødovre – 1-2 days per week

We are looking for a compassionate, reliable, and caring Personal Care Assistant to support a woman who recently returned home after rehabilitation.

She lives in a house in Rødovre with her husband and their two children. Following a cerebral hemorrhage, she has an acquired brain injury and paralysis on one side of her body. She has lost her ability to speak but understands English. Applicants must be able to speak English.

Your responsibilities will include:

- Providing personal care and daily support
- Assisting with transfers and everyday routines
- Being a calm, reassuring, and caring presence

Working hours:

- 7:00 AM – 5:00 PM
- 1-2 shifts per week
- Shifts alternate between Wednesdays and Fridays
- We work on a 6-week rotation, with both Wednesday and Friday shifts every sixth week

We offer:

- Immediate start
- A meaningful role where you can make a real difference
- The opportunity to work with a wonderful and kind family
- Support and introduction from an experienced colleague who previously worked with the woman and knows both her and the family very well
